

Confirmation and Matching Procedure

Matching

A trade is considered matched when mandatory economic and settlement attributes agree between the internal record and the counterparty confirmation.

Mandatory Fields

Trade ID, security identifier, quantity, price, currency, trade date, settlement date, buy/sell and counterparty.

Exceptions

A mismatch should create a break with a reason code. Operations should correct the source of truth rather than manually overriding the downstream confirmation.