

Post-Trade Reconciliation

Purpose

Reconciliation compares internal positions, cash, settlement status and transaction records with external records.

Break Categories

Quantity break, cash break, status break, price break, security identifier break and timing break.

Resolution

Identify the authoritative source, investigate upstream/downstream records, document the root cause and close only after the records agree or an approved adjustment exists.