

Post-Trade Trade Lifecycle Overview

Purpose

This synthetic operations document describes a generic institutional securities trade lifecycle from execution through settlement and accounting.

Lifecycle

Trade capture → enrichment → confirmation/matching → settlement instruction → settlement monitoring → reconciliation → EOD processing.

Control Points

Operations should verify trade economics, counterparty, settlement instructions, security reference data, settlement status and accounting impacts before EOD closure.